Judges Give Hamilton Decision In Debate Against Williams

Visiting Team Gives Stubborn Opposition to Buff and Blue Forensic Trio

PERRINE CLINCHES VICTORY

His Sage Rebuttal is Deciding Factor for Winners

The Hamilton College debate team defeated the Williams speakers in the Chapel on Friday evening by a 3 to 0 decision. The question, of which the Buff and Blue upheld the affirmative, was: "Resolved, that this house views with alarm the present tendency of eastern colleges to stress a standard of business and professional utility in college education." George H. Perrine, '25, Lawrence A. Wood, '26, and Clarence A. Wagner, '25, and Frederick S. Marquardt, '27, alternate, represented Hamilton. The Williams team was composed of Paul R. Reynolds, Jr., '26, Archibald Van Buren, '27, and Lawrence C. Hicks, '28. Professor Lewis presided.

Perrine, in opening the debate for the affirmative, pointed out that there is a question of utilitarian education against liberal education. Quoting Elihu Root as saying, "The object of education is to bring out the best in human nature," he showed that a vocational education fails to accomplish this object. Hicks, in reply, emphasized the fact that although there is an increase in the tendency under discussion, there is also an increase in liberal education.

Debate is Keenly Contested

Wood, as the second affirmative speaker, argued that business influences are prevalent in American colleges, that courses are studied with a view to receiving financial returns. He called to attention that although the negative speaker had presented statistics to show an increase in liberal education, he had failed to mention an increase in technical education. Van Buren, answering for Williams, said that a high intellect is necessary to obtain culture from the classics. He stated that practical subjects have a greater cultural value for there is more to be gained from them.

In closing the constructive arguments for Hamilton, Wagner contended that instead of developing thinkers, we develop encyclopedias. Persons who have given time to accumulation of information, he said, find themselves lost in the world where things change over night. To illustrate his point he mentioned the fact that the General Electric Company will not take into the firm graduates from the electrical school at Union, but only those who have graduated from the arts college. Reynolds, in closing the debate for the visitors, emphasized that there is more pursuit of real culture now than in the past. He claimed that the reason why so many great men today have cultural eductions is because it was all that they could get.

Perrine Closes Debate

Perrine, in the rebuttal for the affirmative, pointed out that the negative had spent most of the time in proving that there is no tendency of eastern colleges to stress a standard of business and professional utility, although the subject for debate was whether or not we view the tendency with alarm; that it is assumed in the question that there is a tendency. BASKETBALL QUINTET HAS HARD SCHEDULE

Eleven Defeats—Three Victories Is Record for 1924-25

PLAYS EIGHT CLOSE GAMES

Eleven defeats and three victories stands as the basketball record for the 1924-25 season. But of the defeats, eight were hard, close games that belonged to anyone until the final whistle. In the first game of the season Hamilton nosed out the University of Maine 34 to 32. In this game Captain Hatch turned an almost inevitable defeat into victory by successfully scoring two shots from the foul within the last half minute of play.

On Dec. 17, Hamilton defeated Hobart 32 to 28, but on Jan. 10, immediately after the Christmas recess, the Buff and Blue suffered its first defeat at the hands of R. P. I. under a 51 to 16 count. This defeat was followed by another defeat, 38 to 17, at the hands of Union.

The most painful defeat of the season came on the Saturday of Winter Carnival when the St. Stephens' team defeated the Hamilton five 41-40, after trailing until the last few minutes of the game.

Squad Takes Eastern Trip

On Feb. 4, the Hamilton squad left for the New England trip which resulted in three defeats and one victory. The varsity lost to Williams, Wesleyan, and Amherst, but defeated Trinity.

On Feb. 10, the Hamilton team was defeated at home by St. Lawrence, 47 to 22, and on Feb. 18 it was defeated 47 to 41 by Colgate, after holding the lead for more than half the game and generally outplaying the visitors. Rochester carried away a victory on Feb. 21, 37-19, and Hamilton was defeated in a second contest with Union on Feb. 26 by a 41 to 15 score. On Mar. 2 another defeat was suffered at the hands of Colgate in a return game, by a score of 46-29.

The personnel of the team was considerably changed during the season. Jacobson and Rowley, '27, were both ineligible until the beginning of the second semester, when Stone, '27, was declared ineligible. This shook up the make-up of the team considerably. Hatch went from center to forward and Jacobson went to center. Rowley played the other forward position. Payne, '26, played guard and Howk, '27, and Esch, '26, played the position of guard alternately.

Throughout the season Captain Hatch did splendidly consistent work. Payne is likewise to be commended for his good work. During the last part of this week a meeting will be held at the home of Mr. Prettyman to elect a captain for next season. This will be announced later.

SWORDSMEN WILL FACE COLUMBIA SATURDAY

Hope to Retrieve Setback at Hands of Cornell—There Is Little Dope on Columbia

Next Saturday Hamilton will fence with Columbia at New York. Last year Columbia came to Clinton, Hamilton winning in a very close meet, by a score of 9-8. Columbia has lost several of last year's men, among them Bloomer, who won the intercollegiate foils championship last year. From the showing thus far of the saber men and the foils combination, Hamilton should duplicate its victory of last year. The men on the Buff and Blue team seem confident that they will be able to secure the majority of the bouts, and they feel that the meet with Columbia will give them a chance to make up for the meet with Cornell.

PRACTICE FOR SPRING SPORTS HAS COMMENCED

Baseball Cage Is Set Up in Gym—Candidates Are Working and Coaches Are Busy

PENN RELAYS COME SOON

A New Relay Team Will Have to Be Developed

With the hockey and basketball seasons just closed, indoor workouts in the spring sports have already begun. Saturday afternoon saw the baseball nets up in the Gym, and a light workout for the whole squad. The freshman basketball team has not yet completed its schedule, as a game is to be played here on Wednesdy night. Until then the frosh will practice in the evening.

Under the direction of Coach Carroll, the track squad has been training hard indoors. A good number of freshman candidates has appeared, of whom the most promising seem to be Jacobson, Kinloch, and Yuan. Every afternoon for the past two weeks, the men have been practicing starts, relay work, and sprints. It is expected that Penn Relay try-outs will not be held until the outdoor track can be used, for it is hard to judge a runner by his indoor performance. Coach Carroll has already timed the prospective team on several occasions, however, and it is possible that he will not wait before choosing the four best. Beside the freshman delegation, Captain Charlie Thomas, who will certainly make the team, and de Lalla, Bookhout, LeFever, Orcutt, and Taylor look good. Contestants for other events are training daily in the Sage Building.

Prospects Look Bright

"Ken" Watkins, who was a member of last year's Penn Relay team, is unable to run this year, due to a weak heart. Despite his loss, however, the prospects look bright for the relay and other track events, and it is hoped that a number of jumpers and weight men will come out to make the field division of the team squally strong.

The tennis team has not yet begun to practice, mainly because there has been some question as to the use of indoor courts in Utica.

GEO. MIDDLETON GIVES LECTURE ON THE THEATRE

His Experiences, Which Covered a Period of Twenty Years, Were Basis of Talk

AUDIENCE WAS INTERESTED

Open Forum After Lecture Was Greatly Appreciated

"An audience demands in a play something that it can root for. The Cinderella story and success against difficulties are two themes which can always be depended on to hold a theater audience." These two statements were made by George Middleton, the prominent playwright, in his lecture on "The Experiences of a Dramatist" last Thursday evening in the chapel.

"There is a distinction between the drama and the theater," said Mr. Middleton. "The drama is the literature of plays which appear as books, while the theater includes playing and producing plays." Playwrights are being considered literary men now because most plays are published. The playwright used to be a newspaper man or one who worked in theaters. Plays were usually foreign plays rewritten. The majority of playwrights nowadays, however, are men who have had definite college training in writing plays, Mr. Middleton stated.

Gets Personal Interview

The best way to get a manager or an actor to accept a play is to get a personal interview with him when he is away from home, was Mr. Middleton's advice, because he may be lonely and glad to see you. He told how he once made 24 appointments with a man who finally bought his play. One manager has the aggravating habit of cosing his eyes while the author is reding to him which makes in uncertain whether he is asleep or not. Mr. Middleton told his experiences in reading plays to George M. Cohen, David Belasco, and other celebrated managers. He covered the subject of actors, directors and contracts in an interesting way.

In answering questions about ticket speculators, "What Price Glory," "Candida," Nazimova, the critics, and similar subjects, the lecturer held his audience with ease.

Interfraternity Council Decides Upon Date of Spring House-Party

Party Will be Held Over Week-end of May 15 and 16—Council Decides to Have Sub-Freshman Day on May 9.

At a meeting of the Interfraternity Council held yesterday morning, Mar. 9, after chapel, several matters of importance were brought up. The question of whether or not Hamilton should have a Sub-Freshman Day this year, and if so, what date is should fall on, and also the question of when the crowds should entertain at Spring House Party, was put to a vote. As a result of the vote, it was decided to have Sub-Freshman Day on Saturday, May 9, and Spring House Party the week-end following, May 15 and 16. The annual Interscholastic Speaking Contest, which has usually been a feature of Sub-Freshman Day, will not be conducted this year.

The Interfraternity Council is considering the adoption of a new form of rushing at Hamilton. Nothing definite has been done in this direction as yet, but with the growth of the college and for other reasons, it seems desirable that some change be made from the rushing system followed at present. The plan of alloting rooms in the college dormitories was also discussed. With the cooperation of Mr. Coughin, something along the line of a new method may be put into operation next fall.

At present, the names of the Junior members of the Interfraternity Council have not been announced.

YEARLING HOCKEY TEAM BEATS SKANEATELES, 1-0

The freshman hockey team defeated the Skaneateles sextet last Saturday afternoon by a score of 1-0, in what was probably the last game of the season. The game was played on ice which was not much better than slush and water, and was delayed for some time by attempts to drain the surface water from the western end of the rink. Bald netted the only tally of the game. Both goal guards did good work, despite difficulty in seeing the puck.

The Skaneateles team came here with a fine list of victories for this season. They have defeated two Syracuse high schools and the Syracuse freshman team. The defeat Saturday was their first setback of the season.

The lineup:

HAMILTON	SKANEATELES
Briggs, lw	Arthur, lw
Beardsley, rw	Smith, rw
Gillespie, c	Keebler, c
Hassard, ld	Shepherd, ld
Bald, rd	Allyn, rd
Scovel, g	Hardwick, g

FRESHMAN QUINTET BOWS TO NEW HARTFORD, 22-17

The freshman basketball team bowed to the fast New Hartford five last Friday evening before a capacity crowd in the New Hartford gymnasium. The final score was 22-17.

The yearlings seemed unable to accustom themselves to the New Hartford court, and had difficulty in finding the basket during the first half. They came back strong in the second period and played their opponents on even terms. Two long shots by New Hartford's captain broke the tie in the last five minutes of play, and the freshman team was unable to even the score before the final whistle blew. Fitzgerald and Pierce both played excellent games for the losers, while Hughes starred for the winners. A good crowd of students from the Hill witnessed the contest.

The Freshmen will close their season this Friday night against Utica Free Academy.

—President Theodore C. Burgess, LL.D., '83, of the Bradley Polytechnic Institute, Peoria, Ill., died at his home in Peoria on February 26th.

Hamilton Fencers Are Conquered By Cornell in Close Contest, 9-8

Ithacans Show Great Strength in Foils —Win Four Opt of Five Matches— Team Napping

RESULT IS BIG SURPRISE

Buff and Blue Makes Best Showing in Fast Sabre Bouts

Last Saturday afternoon, Hamilton lost a disappointing fencing tilt to Cornell by a score of 9-8. The Hamilton team went to Ithaca expecting to secure an easy win, considering the newness of the men on the Cornell team. Their opponents, however, showed unexpected form and cleverness, even going so far as to take four out of nine matches against the excellent Hamilton foilsmen. The meet was affected somewhat by uneven judging; neither of the judges seemed to be certain of their decisions and both missed touch after touch made by both teams. This cannot be said of the referee, whose judging was excellent.

The foils matches started out with a match between Captain Packer and Iurka of Cornell. Packer won. The next four matches were won by Cornell, Pulvino and Captain Hayes winning from Kittel, Scott, and Packer. Thus the score for the first five matches stood 1-4 in favor of Cornell. At this point the Hamilton men took a brace, securing victories in all of the remaining matches, making the final foils score 5-4. In his bout with Iurka, Kittel's form was excellent and his attacks swift and sure. Time after time he got touches with the beat-straight attack, completely deceiving Iurka, giving in all a very unusual exhibition of fencing.

Saber Men Show Up Well

The saber men, Michels and Kutz, showed up very well. Kutz lost one close bout to Hayes and and won from Hill of Cornell. Michels won from Captain Hayes 5-0 in a very clever match. He lost to Hill.

In the epee matches, Gregory won from Iurka, and lost to Hayes. Scovel lost both his bouts.

Captain Packer regrets the poor showing of the foilsmen, but commends the showing of Michels and Kutz. He feels that the foils team will not be caught napping again. The returns of the last four foils matches show what the team can do when it has to.

The scores were as follows: Foils: Packer of Hamilton defeated Iurka of Cornell 5-4; Pulvino, Cornell, defeated Kittel, Hamilton, 5-4; Hayes, Cornell, defeated Scott, Hamilton, 5-3; Pulvino defeated Packer, 5-3; Hayes defeated Kittel, 5-4; Scott defeated Iurka, 5-3; Packer defeated Hayes, 5-4; Kittel defeated Iurka, 5-0; Scott defeated Pulvino, 5-2. Total score of foils, Hamilton 5, Cornell, 4.

Sabers: Kutz, Hamilton, defeated Hill, Cornell, 5-4; Michels, Hamilton, defeated Hayes, Cornell, 5-0; Hill defeated Michels, 5-4; Hayes defeated Kutz, 5-2.

Total score of sabers: Hamilton 2. Cornell 2.

Epee: Gregory, Hamilton, defeated Iurka, Cornell; Hayes, Cornell, defeated Scovel, Hamilton; Iurka defeated Scovel; Hayes defeated Gregory.

Total score of epees: Hamilton 1, Cornell, 3. Score of meet: Hamilton 8, Cornell 9.

Judges: Major Anderson and Lieut. Connor of the R. O. T. C. department of Cornell. Referee: Sherman Hall.

HOCKEY TEAM WINS NINE OUT OF THIRTEEN GAMES

Coach Prettyman Deserves Much Credit for Fine Season

TEAM HAS STRONG OFFENSE

After closing the season with an overwhelming defeat of her classic rival, Union, by a score of 13-2, Hamilton's hockey sextet added another successful season to its already formidable string. Hamilton's contests with Harvard and Princeton resulted in conclusive setbacks, but the remainder of the season was highly creditable. The Buff and Blue played 13 games this year, lost three, tied one, and won nine. The offense was particularly strong in these games, chalking up 62 goals against their opponents' 23.

In the opening contest of the season on December 20, Hamilton, showing flashes of good form, handed an 8-0 defeat to Middlebury. The team outskated, outshot, and outplayed the Vermont team.

Hamilton Defeats B. U.

The Buff and Blue skaters won their second victory of the season over Boston University in the Russell Sage Rink by a score of 2-0. Superior aggressiveness and individual brilliance won the contest for Hamilton.

Plainly showing the effects of the hard struggle with Boston, Hamilton contended with the Nichols Club at Buffalo the next evening and exhausted themselves in making a 2-2 tie of the game. An extra period of ten minutes did not enable either team to break the deadlock.

In a game featured by brilliant playing on the part of the Buff and Blue sextet, Hamilton defeated the Massachusetts Aggies 5-0 in the fourth contest of the season, which was played at Clinton.

Their next opponent, M. I. T., put up the stiffest battle of any visiting team and nosed out the Hamilton team by a score of 3-2. Hamilton tied the game near the end of the third period, and Boston netted the winning goal on a lucky shot in the extra session.

The Buff and Blue were forced to play good hockey to defeat the Alumni 2-1 in the annual encounter, which was a feature of Winter Carnival. The Alumni sextet, composed of Bates, '24, A. Kaiser, '21, W. Thompson, '23, Reeder, '22, Marlow, '23, and Marks, '24, gave the Varsity spirited opposition.

After a poor start in the Harvard game, Hamilton tightened, but was overcome by a 6-2 tally, H. Valentine scoring both of the Hamilton goals.

In the next contest Hamilton swamped the Clarkson aggregation by

ALL SENIORS ATTEND DR. FERRY'S RECEPTION

Faculty and Students Spend a Very Enjoyable Evening at President's Home

Last Wednesday evening Dr. and Mrs. Ferry and members of the faculty received the members of the Senior Class at Dr. Ferry's home. The artists of the occasion were Miss Loraine Wyman and Mrs. Lewis Smith, her accompanist. Miss Wyman sang folk songs, some of which she had collected herself. She dressed in costumes appropriate to the songs.

The first part of her program was devoted to songs of the French peasantry. She was dressed in the quaint costume of the women of Brittany. The last part was in English, and included folk songs of the Kentucky and Tennessee mountain districts, which had developed from old English folk songs. For this group of songs, she was dressed in crinoline.

Hamilton's "Four Hundred".

A few years ago the Trustees voted that Hamilton should limit its enrollment to four hundred students. When they took this action there seemed no immediate chance that this limit would be reached, and provision was not made for selecting the men who would form Hamilton's "400." If next year's freshman class is as large as this year's—and reports from the Office say that that advance regisration is the greatest in the history of the College—some way will have to be found of limiting the enrollment. The successful solution of this new problem is vital to the College.

Three Suggestions

Three methods of selecting our future student body have been suggested. First, on a basis of the applicant's record in scholarship. Second, on a basis of his general desirability, character, and personality. Third, by giving preference to sons and relatives of alumni. It is quite obvious that no one of these suggestions will be altogether satisfactory. A hasty examination of alumni records shows that if in the past we had limited our enrollment to potential "Phi Betes", we would have excluded a large number of the men of whom Hamilton is proudest. Scholarship must be a "sine qua non" of admittance, but it cannot be our only standard, and President Ferry has let it be known that scholastic record will be but a part of the future requirements for entrance. On the other hand, if general character is made the basis for our choice, the problem of comparison and selection would be almost without a solution. It would be practically impossible to make recommendations and "characters", written by people with widely divergent points of view and standards, an equitable basis for selection. If, however, we follow in the footsteps of Yale, and give preference to sons and relatives of alumni, we would keep "new blood" out of Hamilton. Such a plan would tend to make the College a large clique, and might eventually break down Hamilton's fine tradition of democracy.

Important to College

In some combination of these three methods lies the future of the College. This discussion is not hypothetical and theoretical; it is practical, and demands immediate attention. Within a few months Hamilton will have made one of the most important decisions in her history. It is the duty of every Hamilton man to give this question his serious attention, that the future of the College may be as brilliant as her past.

One Hundred Years' Delay.

Campus discussion of the local postal system, stirred to the boiling point by the campaign initiated in last week's Life, is unanimous in its agreement that the present system demands attention. Spasmodic efforts on the part of the College body over a period of more than a hundred years culminated in 1917 in the award to the College of the same R. F. D. service which farmers living in this vicinity had always received. The one and important exception was that packages were delivered to the farmers, while College men were forced to walk to Clinton for theirs. A few years ago the delivery of packages was secured at the cost of several hours' delay in the letter delivery.

If the College, as it has done in the past, contents itself with occasional outbursts of wrath, and if individual students are satisfied merely to complain to each other of the inefficient service, conditions are likely to remain at a standstill for another hundred years, when, by the grace of God, we shall be granted full and prompt R. F. D. service. The most important reason for the present state of the postal system is that complaints have not been presented to the proper authorities. The individual students who hear each others' complaints are, of course, powerless to change anything, and the Clinton authorities appear to be indifferent to local complaints. The only course open is to appeal to those "higher up."

OLD PREX' WILL PUBLISH NEW BOOK OF HIS POEMS

Dr. M. W. Stryker, '72, has completed plans for the publication of a new and complete edition of his poetry. The copy for the book is now in the hands of the printer, and work on it is well under way. Copies of the work will be very valuable, for all of the type is to be set by hand, and it is an edition limited to 285 copies. Each copy will be autographed by Dr. Stryker.

Among the poetry in the book will be a translation of the Psalms, some poems on Biblical subjects, some poems in Latin, and the remainder of his poems upon various subjects. Editions of his poems have been printed before, but this will be the only complete one.

A feature of the book is the fact that it is to be printed on Italian hand-made paper. There will be about 400 pages in it. The book is also to have a very handsome binding. Thus the poetry of Dr. Stryker will be preserved in a memorable and lasting manner.

Because of their fine record for this type of printing, the contract for the publication of this book has been given to the Courier Press, Inc., of Clinton.

TEAM BURIES UNION UNDER HUGE SCORE

Garnet Trounced, 13-2—Star Sextet Ends Successful Season—Five Seniors Play Last Game

Scoring almost at will, Coach Prettyman's puck-chasers had no trouble in winning from Union here last Wednesday by a score of 13-2. The Buff and Blue took the lead early in the first period and kept piling up the goals until a total of 13 had been amassed, the largest score registered this year by Hamilton.

The visitors, considerably hampered by lack of practice for several weeks, were no match for the home team and after the first period were contented to remain for the most part on the defense. Coach Prettyman used his entire squad of players and in addition, in order to get a line on next year's prospects, sent in a freshman defense composed of Hassard and Bald.

Van Vleet put up an excellent brand of hockey, scoring five times. Captain Russ Thompson in what was probably his last game in a Hamilton suit displayed considerable form. Yates, H. Valentine, Johnson, J. Valentine, and Kaiser, also made their final bow to the local ice enthusiasts.

Lineup and summary:

HAMILTON		UNION
	left wing
Yates		Gilmour
	right wing
Van Vleet		Walker
	center
Thompson		Hyland
	left defense
H. Valentine		Mulqueen
	right defense
Johnson		Clifford

Stanley		Finegane

Substitutions: I. Bald, J. Valentine, Browne, McLean, Mann, Kaiser, Hassard, Fuess.

Scoring: Van Vleet 5, Thompson 2, Yates 2, Johnson 2, H. Valentine, McLean, Gilmour, Clifford.

Referees: DeAngelis, B. Prettyman. Periods: four of 12 minutes each.

HAMILTON DROPS LAST CONTEST TO COLGATE

Hatch Ends Career High Scorer—Team Loses 47-29

Monday evening the Buff and Blue basketball team lost its last game of the season at Hamilton to the Colgate quintet by a score of 47-29. The Maroon started the game with its second team which held the Hamilton players in check and maintained a lead of 20-8 at the end of the half. Hatch and Jacobsen were the only Hamilton men to score from the field.

In the second half the Buff and Blue rallied and drew to within six points of Colgate, the score standing at 26-20. Coach Reid of Colgate then rushed Stone, Clark, and Kennedy, regulars, into the contest to stop the Hamilton attack. The rally soon died out, however, and after Colgate had again gained a safe lead, the Maroon seconds were sent back into the game.

Captain Hatch, playing his last game for Hamilton, was the mainstay of the losers and high scorer of the game with 16 points. Howk and Rowley also played well until put out of the game on personal fouls.

The Home of Values

We landed at Cherbourg, where they had a funny toy train to take us to Paris—no cow-catchers on the engine. Kitty's aunt met her on the tender and she said we must come and have tea some time at their home on the Rue de la Chat, in the Catier Latin. To Paris Expenses $3.00

Jack and I found a wonderful little cat pension hotel near Kitty's over on the left bank where they have the best milk and fish and mouse grille. Bettern' we ever had back in Murphy's Alley. And all for only $1.50

Today we got 18.60 francs for each of our $s, and tonight we're going to the original Folies, ole cat, and we're going in the promenoire for only— $0.25

Jack just went out for a walk, and I saw him headed down the Rue de la Chat. I suspect that cat of felineous motives.

Yours,
FELIX.

CHOIR TO TAKE TOUR TO NEW YORK AND TO BROADCAST AT WEAF

Under the Leadership of Professor Fancher, Choir Will Take Its Longest Trip

ALUMNI MANAGE CONCERTS

Choir Has Been Highly Praised by Numerous Critics

The concert of the college choir on Friday evening of this week, March 13, in the Westminster Church in Utica, will be the first appearance of the organization in the most important trip it has undertaken to date. Six appearances are scheduled for this group during the five days of the trip, four of which will be in or near New York City.

After the appearance in Utica the choir will return to the Hill for the night, and will leave the next morning for Scarborough. From Scarborough, the 48 men who make the trip will go to Briarcliff Lodge at Briarcliff Manor. This appearance has been arranged through the efforts of the Rev. Anthony N. Petersen, D.D., '95. After the concert in the evening at Briarcliff Lodge, there will be a short dance. The men of the choir will be entertained by the parishioners of Dr. Petersen. Arrangements are being made for the alumni living in Westchester County to hold a reunion that evening.

To Sing in Bridgeport

On Sunday, March 15, the choir will sing in the First Presbyterian Church of Bridgeport, Conn., of which Rev. Alexander Alison, Jr., '97, is pastor. Members of the church will entertain the singers.

Alexander Woollcott, '09, and several other Hamilton alumni have arranged a strictly invitation performance by the choir on Sunday afternoon at 4:45 in the Booth Theater on 45th Street in New York City. It is expected that there will be an audience of well over a thousand people present at this performance.

Choir to Broadcast

In the evening the choir will broadcast its program of sacred music from the studio of WEAF at 195 Broadway, from 10 to 10:30 o'clock. When it was learned that a New York trip would be made this spring, Professor Fancher was invited by WEAF to broadcast through that station while in New York.

The final appearance of the trip will be at Huntington, L. I., under the auspices of the Huntington Musical Association and will be the climactic event of the musical season there. This concert has been arranged through the efforts of Rev. Edward J. Humeston, '99, at whose suggestion and through whose earnest cooperation the whole trip has been planned and engineered. Directly following the Huntington concert the choir will leave for New York, where it will take a special Pullman for Utica, so that it will be back on the Hill in time for the second-hour classes on Wednesday morning.

HAMILTON COLLEGE CHOIR

HOCKEY TEAM WINS NINE OUT OF THIRTEEN

a score of 9-0 in a game played at Clinton.

Presenting a strong defense and an aggressive offense, the Buff and Blue outclassed Amherst here 7-2. The Massachusetts skaters played a hard game, but at no time threatened to overcome the Hamilton lead.

R. P. I., the next opponent, met defeat at the hands of the Buff and Blue sextet by a score of 5-1 in a slow game played on slushy ice at Clinton.

In decisive fashion Princeton outplayed Hamilton and won by a score of 6-0 in a contest played at Princeton. In the second period the winning team netted five goals.

Sextet Overwhelms Cornell

Hamilton staged a comeback in the Cornell game and trounced the Crimson, 5-0. The Buff and Blue showed some of the best hockey of the season in this encounter.

In the last contest of the season Hamilton swamped her ancient rival, Union, under an avalanche of 13 goals to 2. The Garnet was powerless before the rushing attack of the Buff and Blue offense.

All of the first team men played good hockey, particularly Captain Thompson, H. Valentine and Yates, who were most consistent scorers. Of the reserves McLean, Mann, Browne, and Fuess all showed promise and improved in a very satisfactory manner.

Coach Prettyman deserves great credit for his untiring efforts in developing the team. Hamilton's great record this season shows the value of his painstaking coaching. Next season he will have the task of building up a new team, as all but Van Vleet and Stanley of this year's team will graduate.

—Virgil B. DeWitt, '23, is stuying medicine at the Cornell Medical School in New York City.

HAMILTON DEBATERS DEFEAT WILLIAMS

ing thus interpreted the manner in which the negative had presented its arguments, he rested the cast for Hamilton.

The judges were Dr. F. J. Douglas and Attorney Willard R. Pratt of Utica and Prof. Elmer Smith of Colgate. While the judges were making their decision, a vote of the audience was taken, resulting in a 72-12 decision for the victors.

A reception for the Williams team was held at the E. L. S. House immediately after the debate.
